

Please do not allow Indiana's no call list to be weakened by the banking industry. We should be able to have what ever rules we need to protect the privacy of our home and mobile phones. This is a terrible idea, please do not allow it to happen.